The old expression "If it ain't broke, don't fix it" clearly doesn't apply when it comes to fairytales because Hollywood simply can't help but to put a new spin on almost all of the stories that we grew up with. The latest remake is another musical take on, this time starring pop singer Camila Cabello as the pauper-turned-princess, and the first look at the Amazon Studios film hints that this version of the Charles Perrault classic will be quite different from what we've seen before. After being beat to the punch by an anonymous leak of the teaser, Amazon Studios released its first official trailer of Cinderella on Wednesday, June 30. In it, we're introduced to Ella (Cabello), who is an aspiring fashion designer in this iteration of the folk tale. She's got talent as big as her imagination, but making her dreams come true isn't easy, especially when her evil stepmother (Idina Menzel) is keeping her locked up in the house. One day, however, the chance to go out into the real world falls into Ella's lap, and her she excitedly seizes the opportunity with the help of her very well-dressed fairy godparent Fab G (played by Billy Porter)."So do you want to go to that ball?" asks Fab G in the brief teaser. "Yes!" replies an exasperated Ella. "I was just crying and singing about it like two minutes ago." To make sure it has a fighting chance in the fairytale zeitgeist, Amazon rounded up a team of A-listers to support Cabello in the new musical. She, Porter, and Menzel will be joined by Minnie Driver, James Corden, Nicholas Galitzine, and Pierce Brosnan in the big budget production. It's been described as a "jukebox musical," meaning that the soundtrack will feature covers of modern pop songs, giving Cabello and her co-stars an opportunity to flex both their acting chops and their vocals. Decided for yourself how this version Cinderella stacks up to its predecessors when it hits Amazon Prime on September 3, 2021. Kevin Mazur/AMA2019//Getty ImagesSingers and couple Camila Cabello and Shawn Mendes's "Señorita" is up for Best Pop Duo/Group Performance at the 2020 Grammys. "Señorita" hit number one on the Billboard Hot 100 charts in August 2019, and their steamy music video has racked up more than 890 million views. Cabello (pronounced "Ca-BAE-yo") is set to perform at the Grammys on Sunday, January 26. Here's a breakdown of the song's lyrics and meaning—one of the biggest songs of summer 2019. One could argue that Camila Cabello and Shawn Mendes, more than most major pop stars charting today, were first chosen by the public. Like Kelly Clarkson before her, Camila entered the music world via a reality TV competition show (The X Factor), where she placed third as part of an assembled girl group that audiences voted to name Fifth Harmony. Mendes, meanwhile, was a Canadian teenager posting earnest cover songs performed in his bedroom to YouTube and then Vine, and his literal overnight success as a popular social media star gained the attention of record executives. Cabello and Mendes met on the road in 2014, and soon became friends. Years later, they're a very public couple that Twitter refers to as "Shamila" and alternately, "Shawmila." Now, "Señorita"—their second collaboration—is a certified hit, and a Grammy nominee. Released in June 2019, "Señorita" (or Miss, in Spanish), seemed to be everywhere last summer. The Latin-infused flair of its guitar licks are a nod to the Havana-born Cabello's heritage, while the lyrics pay tribute to her Miami upbringing. "Señorita"'s lyrics also stoked rumors that the two had fallen in love: "You say, "We're just friends don't know the way you taste-la-la..." Cabello and Mendes continued to tease that romance with an MTV VMAs performance, which channeled the sensuality of "Señorita"'s music video (their faces spent a lot of time mere inches from each other). View full post on YoutubeThe song pre-dates their official relationship. In an interview with V Magazine, Cabello and Mendes added: "It took me 10 months to convince Camila to sing this with me." The Grammy-nominated artists previously collaborated on "I Know What You Did Last Summer," which peaked at number 20 on the U.S. Billboard Hot 100. They wrote it backstage while on fellow Grammy nominee Taylor Swift's 1989 tour. "I pulled out my guitar and we were just messing around, not really thinking about writing a song," Mendes told Rolling Stone. View full post on Twitter Mendes told an audience in Australia that he and Cabello have "officially" been a couple since July 4, 2019, according to People, and a photo of the two making out in a swimming pool made the rounds a few weeks later. The fact that this all dovetailed nicely with the beginning of the song's promotional cycle caused some to speculate that their relationship was all a PR stunt. Not only was their union fishy, critical fans said, they actually kissed like fish. In response, Cabello and Mendes shared this video to his account in September. Ah, young love. It was released on June 21, 2019, through Island and Epic Records as the second studio album Romance (2019). The song was written by Mendes, Cabello, Charli XCX, Ali Tamposi, Jack Patterson, and its producers Andrew Watt, Benny Blanco, and Cashmere Cat.[2] The song marks Mendes and Cabello's second collaboration, following "I Know What You Did Last Summer" from Mendes' debut album, Handwritten (2015). "Señorita" reached number one on the US Billboard Hot 100, as well as topping the charts in a record setting 40 countries worldwide. It is certified multiplatinum in thirteen countries, including Diamond in France, Mexico, and Poland. "Señorita" received highly positive reviews from music critics. The single has won an American Music Award, two MTV Video Music Awards, a People's Choice Award, and received a nomination for a Grammy Award for Best Pop Duo/Group Performance. The song was the biggest song of 2019 in Malaysia and according to the International Federation of the Phonographic Industry (IFPI), it was the third best-selling single of 2019 worldwide, with combined sales and track-equivalent streams of 16.1 million units globally.[3] As of October 2021 it is the 9th most streamed song on Spotify.[4] Background The song was originally conceived during a studio session, created a guitar melody that he described as being reminiscent of Fleetwood Mac and José Feliciano. He played the guitar melody during the studio session where ideas for melodies and lyrics for the chorus of the song eventually formed, including what would become the opening line, "I love it when you call me señorita".[5][6] Watt sent the rough chorus of the song to Shawn Mendes, suggesting that the song to producers Benny Blanco and Cashmere Cat who liked it and began to work together on the production of the song, deciding to keep it simple to make room for the vocals.[5] Mendes and Cabello both made changes to the melody and lyrics to their liking. After the song's key changed and Cabello recorded some vocals, Watt flew to England and planned to record Mendes' vocals on a day off from his tour after his Manchester Arena show. However, Watt, to Mendes' amusement, accidentally blew the microphone by forgetting to change the conversion of power to 220V on the power box. This forced Watt to record Mendes throughout the process because he wanted to preserve his voice for his then-upcoming shows at the O2 Arena.[5] Mendes and Cabello had worked together on writing lyrics and recorded vocals multiple times. Cabello conceived the lyric, "You say we're just friends but friends don't know the way you taste", as the song was already in the process of being mixed, forcing Mendes to record new vocals and sing new harmonies. Their chemistry in the studio was lauded by producer Benny Blanco, who praised their talent and "energy in the room".[5][6] Musical style "Señorita" is a Latin pop song,[7][8] written in the key of A minor, with a common time tempo of 117 BPM.[citation needed] Music video The song's official video was premiered on YouTube on June 21, 2019. The video, directed by Dave Meyers, filmed in Los Angeles, sees Mendes is a newcomer to the city. They meet at the diner, and later see each other at a party. He then takes her on a motorcycle ride and they go to a hotel where they proceed to make love. In the end, however, they are separated, and it ends with Mendes looking out into the ocean and Cabello being consoled by a fellow waitress on their break.[9] As of October 2021, it has reached over 1.3 billion views. The video received positive reviews online, Teen Vogue described the music video as "steamy" and "complete with a health dose of romantic salsa dancing and heartbreak"[10] Bustle said the song "keeps things appropriately hot and steamy"[11] and Metro UK called the video "sizzling"[12] Promotion Both Mendes and Cabello first hinted at a collaboration in December 2018.[13] They began teasing the project on social media in June 2019,[14] with each sharing a 20-second video teaser. [15] They uploaded teasers of the song's music video to their social media accounts on June 19, 2019.[16][17] The former confirmed it as a single later that day along with its release date and artwork. [18] Live performances Mendes and Cabello performed the single at the 2019 MTV Video Music Awards on August 26, 2019.[19] On September 5, 2019, Cabello performed an acoustic version of the song on Elle's Women in Music Party presented by Spotify in The Shed[20] On September 6, during the Shawn Mendes: The Tour live show in Rogers Centre, Toronto, Mendes and Cabello performed "Señorita".[21] Cabello also performed a solo version of the song at the 2019 iHeartRadio Festival, [22] and at a private fan performance hosted by Verizon. [23] On November 24, 2019, Mendes and Cabello performed the song at the 2021 Global Citizen Live. On May 28, 2022, Cabello performed the song in the 2022 UEFA Champions League Final.[24][25] Mendes has added the single to his setlist on his ongoing tour, as a medley with "I Know What You Did Last Summer"—which Cabello also features in—and "Mutual".[citation needed] Critical reception Shaad D'Souza from The Fader praised the single for being effortlessly steamy and wonderfully lightweight, concluding that although Cabello is clear MVP, the song would fizzle without Mendes as her foil.[26] TJ Lovell from Medium called the track a sexy ode to a vacation rendezvous that allows the pair to flex their undeniable chemistry on and off the mic. Lovell ended by giving the song 4 out of 5 stars, and called it a fun if unremarkable track that'll sound right at home in Mendes' and Cabello's discographies.[citation needed] Commercial performance "Señorita" debuted at number one on the chart issue dated August 31, 2019 dethroning Billie Eilish's "Bad Guy", becoming Mendes' first US number-one song and Cabello's second after "Havana". Cabello became the youngest female artist to achieve a second Hot 100 number one and a fourth Mainstream Top 40 chart-topper since Rihanna (2010).[27] It was replaced by Lizzo's "Truth Hurts" the following week.[28] The single was the most-streamed song on Spotify in 2019 and 9th overall [29] It charted on the Billboard Hot 100 for 37 weeks [30] After the introduction of Billboard Global 200 in September 2020, "Señorita" debuted at number two on the UK Official Charts and reached number one in its 3rd week on the 18th July 2019, and spent 5 weeks in the top spot, it then charted for a further 40 weeks.[32] It has been certified as 2× Platinum in the UK.[33] In Canada Hot AC.
